

1. 12 pencils were shared between 3 children.
How many did each child get?

How many more pencils would you need to give them 5 pencils each?

2. Sara shared 9 cakes equally with her friend.
How many whole cakes did they get each?

How many cakes were left over?

3. Harry bought 5 boxes of cakes. Each box had 4 cakes in it.
How many cakes did Harry buy?

He needed 32 cakes altogether for everyone in his class.
How many more cakes did he need?

4. Alfie had these coins in his pocket. How much did he have?

He needed £1 to go to the cinema. How much more did he need?

5. Zara took a quarter of the sweets above. How many did she take?

How many sweets were left?

1. 16 pencils were shared between 4 children.
How many did each child get?

How many more pencils would you need to give them 5 pencils each?

2. Three boys shared 10 cakes equally between them.
How many whole cakes did they get each?

How many cakes were left over?

3. Tom bought 4 boxes of cakes. Each box had 4 cakes in it.
How many cakes did Tom buy?

He needed 24 cakes altogether for his party.
How many more cakes did he need?

4. William had these coins in his pocket. How much did he have?

He needed £1 to go to the cinema. How much more did he need?

5. Zara took three quarters of the sweets above. How many did she take?

How many sweets were left?

Answers

Page 1

1. 4 pencils 3 more
2. 4 cakes 1 left over
3. 20 cakes 12 more
4. 80p 20p
5. 3 9 left

Page 2

1. 4 pencils 4 more
2. 3 cakes 1 left over
3. 16 cakes 8 more
4. 90p 10p
5. 6 2 left